Spratt Announces Grants to Airports

WASHINGTON – U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) announced today the following federal grants to airports in the 5th Congressional District of South Carolina. The grants are from the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Spratt called the grants “good examples of how the federal government helps out at the local level.”

Airport	Award	Purpose
Chester Municipal	$1,425,000	Rehabilitate existing runway.
Hartsville Regional	$60,000	Remove runway obstructions.
McWhirter Field (Lancaster County)	$96,767	Improve runway safety area. Install new weather information system.
Bryant Field (Rock Hill)	$150,000	Reimbursement of funds for land previously purchased. Design larger aircraft parking area. Feasibility study for a proposed runway extension project to accommodate more users and larger aircraft.
